

Energy Deals for April 2020

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
MaxGen Energy Services	Provider of solar operations and maintenance ("O&M") services in North America. The company develops, maintains and operates infrastructure that supports alternative energy technologies for the solar, wind, electric vehicle charging, and battery storage industries.	The company was acquired by Pearce Services, via financial sponsors New Mountain Capital, Curran Companies and Willcrest Partners through an LBO on April 14, 2020 for an undisclosed sum.
Peak Clean Energy	Developer of utility-scale solar energy projects. The company partners with landowners, electric cooperatives, regional and investor-owned utilities, municipalities, commercial and industrial electricity consumers, and the community at large to build economic and environmentally responsible projects.	The company was acquired by hep global through an LBO on April 8, 2020 for an undisclosed sum. Through this transaction Peak Clean Energy became hep's utility-scale development arm in the U.S.
SitelogIQ	Provider of planning, designing, and management services in Minnesota. The company's services are customized, providing government, education, healthcare, housing, and industry meet their unique needs.	The company was acquired by AEA Investors through an LBO on April 8, 2020 for an undisclosed sum.