

Energy Deals for January 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Continental Batteries	Manufacturer and distributor of aftermarket batteries to automotive, marine and industrial users. The company offers a wide range of batteries and chargers for multiple automotive, industrial and farm vehicles, equipment and tools, appliances and industrial machinery through its network of nationwide centers, fleet of delivery trucks along with on-the-spot rotation and pick-up and warranty credit services, enabling clients to procure high-quality products at a good price.	The company was acquired by H.I.G. Capital through an LBO on January 21, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. Ares Management provided debt financing for the transaction.
Distributed Solar Development (10 MW Portfolio of Community Solar Projects)	Portfolio of two ground-mounted 10 MW photovoltaic projects based in Lenox, New York.	The solar portfolio was acquired by Distributed Solar Development, via its financial sponsor BlackRock, through an LBO on January 6, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Offshore International Group	Provider of oil and gas exploration services based in Houston, Texas. The company owns and operates oil reserves and engages in the exploration of oil and gas in Peru.	The company was acquired by De Jong Capital through an LBO on January 19, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Origis Energy	Operator of solar development and construction firm based in Miami, Florida. The company is engaged in the operations of solar development and construction with a photo-voltaic portfolio of over 600 megawatts and delivers services in solar project development, financing, engineering, procurement and construction and operations, maintenance and asset management for investors and clean energy consumers across Europe and the Americas.	The company was acquired by Global Atlantic Financial Group and its management through an LBO on January 6, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Renew (Other Energy Services)	Provider of operations and maintenance (O&M) services intended for the renewable energy market. The company offers repair and maintenance services of wind turbines and other related equipment, enabling clients to use renewable energy without polluting the environment while maximizing uptime and minimizing costs.	The company was acquired by Takkion Holdings, via its financial sponsor Apollo Global Management, through an LBO on January 4, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.