

Information Technology Deals for March 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
AAA Network Solutions	Provider of telecommunication system installations intended for the K-12 education industry. The company offers a combination of structured telecommunications cabling, LAN system integration and wireless networking services, conduit system installation and electrical services, enabling public and private sectors to save substantially on their energy cost.	The company was acquired by ConvergeOne, via its financial sponsor CVC Capital Partners, through an LBO on March 2, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The deal further solidifies ConvergeOne's position as a progressive solutions leader and expands its capabilities to support education customers.
Abacus Data Systems	Developer of a vertical SaaS platform for legal, accounting and compliance-focused professionals. The company's software has an easy-to-use interface as well as permits the customization of reports, invoices, and other client-facing communications as per corporate brand identity logos, enabling the small and midsize legal and accounting firms to manage all their business operations in an integrated manner.	The company was acquired by Thomas H. Lee Partners through an LBO on March 10, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Altron (Minnesota)	Provider of contract electronics manufacturing services for the medical, military, aerospace and high precision industry. The company manufactures printed circuit board assemblies, mechanical box builds, cables and harnesses which is produced in a low-to-medium volume production environment, providing clients products at a cost-effective rate.	The company was acquired by VirTex Enterprises, via its financial sponsor Insight Equity, through an LBO on March 15, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Applitools	Developer of cloud-based automated visual software testing designed to help companies ensure a suitable user experience on every browser and device through automated visual AI testing and monitoring. The company's software uses automated visual artificial intelligence that completely automates the visual testing process using an algorithm that accurately mimics the human eye and brain, achieving full visual test validation in seconds, enabling automation engineers and digital transformation leaders to shorten the release cycles of the product.	The company was acquired by Thoma Bravo through an estimated $300 million LBO on March 30, 2021.

Information Technology Deals for March 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
BoxMeta	Provider of IT-managed services to small to medium-sized businesses in the United States. The company's services include business continuity planning, VoIP and wireless networking.	The company was acquired by Dynamic Quest, via its financial sponsor Spire Capital, through an LBO on March 29, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Breach Clarity	Developer of a financial platform intended to protect victims of any US breach. The company's platform provides consumers and financial institutions with analysis and guidance around data breach risks, enabling consumers with a checklist of actions consumers to protect themselves such as freezing credit and monitoring credit.	The company was acquired by Sontiq, via its financial sponsor The Wicks Group of Companies, through an LBO on March 9, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Cerdant	Developer of managed security software designed to protect network and data. The company's services include managed firewalls, threat detection, secure wireless network design, network traffic reporting, endpoint security, email security, security assessment services and secure remote access, enabling clients to meet their security and compliance needs.	The company was acquired by Logically, via its financial sponsor The Riverside Company, through an LBO on March 30, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Cherwell Software	Developer of a SaaS on-premises based business technology and information technology service management platform. The company empowers organizations to transform their business through the rapid adoption and easy management of digital service through its adaptable platform which modernizes their business operations with customizable service management, automation and reporting across the enterprise.	The company was acquired by Ivanti, via its financial sponsors TA Associates Management, Clearlake Capital Group and Bratenahl Capital Partners, through an LBO on March 25, 2021. This transaction will strengthen Ivanti's capabilities beyond the core of ITSM and into other lines of business, in addition to enhancing its low or no-code offerings.
Chorus Communications	Provider of technology consulting services based in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The company offers a range of services including cloud hosting, data and network security, fiber and connectivity and managed services, helping sales partners and customers make knowledgeable choices about services, technology and cost-efficient communications.	The company was acquired by Telarus, via its financial sponsor Columbia Capital, through an LBO on March 18, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.

Information Technology Deals for March 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Cobius Healthcare Solutions	Provider of healthcare information technology services intended for hospitals, healthcare systems and physicians. The company offers reimbursement payer audit, denial management solution and compliance risk management tools to help in mitigating associated risks and costs.	The company was acquired by MRO, via its financial sponsor Parthenon Capital Partners, through an LBO on March 1, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
CommPartners (Columbia)	Developer of an online learning management system (LMS) intended to help organizations conceive, develop and fulfill their education strategy. The company provides a wide range of online education services including curriculum design, instructional design, webinars, webcasts, livestream programs and virtual conferences, helping clients to create educational experiences that engage and inspire the learner.	The company was acquired by STG Partners through an LBO on March 23, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The acquisition underscores STG's commitment to building a software platform offering continuing education, professional development, events, learning and content management solutions to associations, non-profits, healthcare & life sciences organizations.
Concertiv	Developer of a decision-support platform designed to offer data analytics, group purchasing and managed services. The company's platform supports executives in making key operating decisions, offers immediate savings and insights that guide vendor selection and peer group and supplier practices, enabling clients to work efficiently.	The company was acquired by Long Arc Capital through an LBO on March 23, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Consumer Research Solutions	Provider of data collection and software services for the power sports, tractor and marine industries. The company offers a range of services including research, analysis, vehicle configuration and comparison as well as standardization of data to businesses, enabling integration of various solutions and processes.	The company was acquired by ARI Network Services, via its financial sponsors TA Associates Management and True Wind Capital, through an LBO on an undisclosed date.

Information Technology Deals for March 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Corry Micronics	Manufacturer and supplier of radio-frequency (RF) and microwave components intended to serve the aerospace, defense, medical, communications and specialty test industries. The company offers a range of products including RF or microwave filters, multiplexers, low noise amplifiers, couplers, power dividers and waveguide components, providing customized and cost-effective electronic solutions to its clients.	The company was acquired by Evans Capacitor Company, via its financial sponsor Arcline Investment Management, through an LBO on March 3, 2021. The company's broad portfolio of radio frequency (RF) and microwave components complements Quantic Electronics' current RF portfolio while deepening its customer relationships in key markets.
Donuts	Provider of domain registration and web hosting services to individuals and businesses. The company simplifies and connects a fragmented online world with domain names and related technologies and owns a portfolio of generic top-level domains (gTLDs) and offers domain discovery, registration, usage and monetization services, enabling customers to build, market and control their digital identities.	The company was acquired by Ethos Capital Private Equity through an LBO on March 31, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Dynamicsignals	Designer and manufacturer of electronic measuring and data collection equipment. The company through its brands specializes in providing open architecture, COTS-based modular RF system solutions with real-time signal recording, playback and monitoring with windows software.	The company was acquired by Vitrek, via its financial sponsor Branford Castle Partners, through an LBO on March 3, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Energy Acuity	Provider of power generation and power delivery market intelligence, intended to support the electric power industry and the significant impact of renewable power sources. The company merges primary research, public resource aggregation, web monitoring, and expert analysis and delivers it through a simple, dynamic online platform to support the clients' focus on actionable information.	The company was acquired by Enverus, via its financial sponsors Accel-KKR, Ares Capital, Genstar Capital and Insight Partners through an LBO on March 31, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.

Information Technology Deals for March 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
EnergyCAP	Developer of utility bill and energy management software intended to identify inefficient facilities and evaluate the impact of energy conservation projects. The company publishes software tools that help organizations derive value from utility bills, helping more energy managers across organizations to track millions of utility bills.	The company was acquired by Resurgens Technology Partners through an LBO on March 4, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
EngagedPro	Provider of information technology services to help businesses meet their telecommunication requirements. The company acts as a mediator between service providers and consumers to offer advice with respect to procurement consulting, vendor selection, project and product management as well as billing, enabling consumers to improve efficiencies while maximizing their investment in technology by choosing the right vendor that meets their requirement.	The company was acquired by SinglePoint solutions, via its financial sponsor Soterra Capital, through an LBO on March 22, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Exadel	Provider of digital platform engineering services in the United States. The company brings expertise in digital transformation, developing enterprise software and technology systems for Fortune 500 companies, enabling them to standardize workflows and get jobs done easily.	The company was acquired by Sun Capital Partners through an LBO on March 4, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
EZLynx	Developer of cloud-based real-time comparative rating software intended to help agents generate quotes from multiple insurance carriers with a single data entry point. The company offers innovative software solutions that transform every facet of agency life, including agency management, client self-servicing, sales pipeline management, marketing and communications, accounting and e-signature.	The company was acquired by Applied Systems, via its financial sponsors Hellman & Friedman, CapitalG, JMI Equity and Stone Point Capital, through an LBO on March 9, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. Nomura Securities has provided committed financing to support the acquisition.

Information Technology Deals for March 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Fingerprint	Provider of a subscription-based platform designed to offer mobile learning and play network for kids. The company's platform offers web and mobile applications providing a shared fun and educational experience for parent and child, enabling parents to help their children stay involved with the games.	The company was acquired by Sandbox & Co. through an LBO on March 30, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
GreenZone Solutions	Provider of information technology and management consulting services intended for public sector clients and federal agencies. The company specializes in data management and operations, data science, analytics, application development, modernization and cybersecurity services.	The company was acquired by Ambit Group, via its financial sponsor AE Industrial Partners, through an LBO on March 2, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Guardian Tracking	Developer of employee performance management software built by and for public safety professionals. The software offers solutions like early intervention, positive recognitions, performance feedback, coaching and leadership, enabling clients with transparent and consistent communication, facilitating performance improvement plans, identifying candidates who demonstrate continued competencies for promotion.	The company was acquired by Envisage Technologies, via its financial sponsors Armory Capital and Norwest Venture Partners, through an LBO on March 23, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
HBR Technologies	Provider of technology support and services for small and medium businesses. The company offers a range of services including network design and performance evaluations, IT security and business assessments and other managed IT services to businesses.	The company was acquired by Meriplex Communications, via its financial sponsor Clairvest Group, through an LBO on March 1, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.

Information Technology Deals for March 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
HiddenLevers	Provider of a portfolio management software for risk analysis, investment process and executive oversight to the wealth and asset management space. The company offers risk management and macro analysis tools that include scenario-based portfolio stress testing, macro scenario modeling, investment screening based on macro trends and client-facing reports and infographics data and commentary for investment advisors, wealth managers, family offices, asset management and portfolio managers, enabling them to handle stress levels.	The company was acquired by Orion Advisor Solutions, via its financial sponsors Genstar Capital and TA Associates Management, through an LBO on March 9, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The company's disruptive applications will become part of Orion Advisor Solutions' core technology platform, enabling advisors to win new business and dispel investor uncertainties by magnifying the ability to generate proposals tailored to clients' specific needs.
Hobsons	Developer of education technology created to manage post-secondary education and career planning. The company's platforms offer college, career and life readiness tools to middle and high schools as well as provides student match and fit services for college admissions offices, providing a student success platform for colleges and universities to help students identify their strengths, explore careers, create academic plans and match to best-fit educational opportunities as per their capability and strengths.	The company was acquired by PowerSchool Group, via its financial sponsors Onex and Vista Equity Partners, through a $320 million LBO on March 3, 2021. The addition of the company's Naviance and Intersect platforms to PowerSchool Group's unified portfolio will help augment the work of school guidance counselors by streamlining career counseling and college decision-making for students and parents and also help students discover their aptitude, skills and interests.
Howard Tech Advisors	Provider information technology managed services intended for small businesses and non-profit organizations. The company provides advisory services, technological expertise, security and disaster recovery as well as cloud-based services, enabling clients' business in the Baltimore, Annapolis, and Columbia, Maryland area to grow and achieve economies of scale.	The company was acquired by Thrive Operations, via its financial sponsors Court Square and M/C Partners, through an LBO on March 9, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.

Information Technology Deals for March 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Infinite Electronics	Supplier of electronic components intended to serve the urgent needs of engineers. The company operates as a holding company further offers engineering grade radio-frequency ("RF") technology products paired with technical support and same day shipping, thereby serving the high urgency and technical needs segment of the global RF component market.	The company was acquired by Warburg Pincus through an LBO on March 2, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The transaction was supported by $1.06 billion of debt financing in the form of a $100 million revolver, a $640 million senior secured first-lien term loan, a $55 million senior secured first lien delayed draw tranche, a $240 million senior secured second-lien term loan, a $20 million senior secured second lien delayed draw term loan from Antares Capital, Jefferies Finance, RBC Capital Markets, Golub Capital, Wells Fargo and TD Bank on March 2, 2021. The investment will support the company's geographic and product line expansion, entry into new, high-growth markets and enhanced digital capabilities.
Infinity Fiber	Manufacturer of optical fiber cables designed for military, aerospace, telecom, broadcast, electrical and other related applications. The company specializes in manufacturing high-quality fiber optic cable assemblies for various industries nationwide in all lengths and configurations as per clients' requirements used in mission-critical applications.	The company, a subsidiary of Nanmac, was acquired by Horizon Telcom, via its financial sponsors Novacap, Hamilton Lane, HarbourVest Partners and RCP Advisors, through an LBO on March 2, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The acquisition provides connectivity to multiple data centers in Indiana and augments Horizon Telcom's existing fiber infrastructure in downtown Indianapolis and Bloomington, Indiana.
iTakeControl	Developer of clinical operations and medical affairs technology and services focused on rare disease and specialty pharma. The company's mobile platform collects patient-reported and real-world data in virtual and home-based clinical trials, enabling mobile capabilities to biopharmaceutical research and development across the spectrum of both clinical trials and other R&D programs.	The company was acquired by Red Nucleus Solutions, via its financial sponsor The Riverside Company, through an LBO on March 4, 2021.

Information Technology Deals for March 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Kidaptive	Developer of an adaptive learning platform designed to empower learners of all ages, parents and teachers, by creating a vibrant ecosystem of personalized learning experiences. The company's platform weaves together evidence from a wide variety of learning contexts to create a unified psychometric profile, supports personalized learning in any domain and at any age level, enabling parents and teachers to get actionable insights about how their learners are progressing and what they can do to support that progress.	The company was acquired by McGraw-Hill Education, via its financial sponsors Apollo Global Management and ATP Private Equity Partners, through an LBO on March 16, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The acquisition advances McGraw-Hill Education's position in personalized learning, analytics and data privacy and security.
Lalilo	Developer of a web-based literacy application platform intended to offer personalized learning guidance to children all over the world. The company's platform uses artificial intelligence to customize reading exercises depending on each student's needs, prepares individualized printable weekly worksheets and offers advanced collaboration and group pairing, enabling teachers to assist each student individually and help them to learn at their own pace.	The company was acquired by Renaissance Learning, via its financial sponsors Francisco Partners, NB Private Equity Partners, Private Equity Holding and W Capital Partners, through an LBO on March 22, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Level One	Provider of billing and payment solutions to utilities, insurance providers and governments. The company services include electronic bill presentment and payment processing (EBPP) and customer experience management that uses secure 1:1 communication across multiple channels, providing clients cost savings, efficiencies and accelerating payments.	The company was acquired by Doxim, via its financial sponsor GI Partners, through an LBO on March 16, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.

Information Technology Deals for March 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
MediaPRO	Provider of SaaS (software as a service) based electronic-learning systems intended for cybersecurity and privacy training. The company develops electronic and blended learning applications that enable organizations of all sizes to analyze, plan, train, and reinforce education for their employees on critical security, privacy, and compliance issues. It delivers a comprehensive, cloud-based platform that reduces the cost and complexity of administering a modern awareness program.	The company was acquired by KnowBe4, via its financial sponsors Carson Private Capital, Kohlberg Kravis Roberts, Ten Eleven Ventures and Greenspring Associates, through an LBO on March 3, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Mobikit	Developer of a cloud-based platform intended to offer data infrastructure for connected vehicles. The company's platform provides data scientists, software developers, and product managers with the tools to build, scale, and maintain vehicle-based enterprise applications on top of data from connected vehicles, enabling clients to focus on products and consumers.	The company was acquired by Azuga, via its financial sponsor Sumeru Equity Partners, through an LBO on March 9, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Mohami	Developer of web-based tools intended for application developers. The company offers plugins to enhance Atlassian products, enabling developers to automate their workflow, facilitate source editing and generate visual dashboards for improved productivity.	The company was acquired by Appfire Technologies, via its financial sponsors Silversmith Capital Partners and TA Associates Management, through an LBO on March 30, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Monetics	Developer of a driving collective intelligence platform designed for use in commercial real estate debt management. The company's platform eliminates arduous manual processes, provides real-time loan vitals and uncovers untapped value, providing enterprises with an automated and secure management solution.	The company was acquired by Derivative Path, via its financial sponsor FTV Capital, through an LBO on March 24, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.

Information Technology Deals for March 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
MuseDev	Developer of DevOps-native code analysis platform intended to help developers to find and fix their most elusive bugs. The company orchestrates code analysis to automatically run at each pull-request and deliver results as comments during code review, thereby integrating into developers existing workflow and ensuring that the results are viewed and assessed by developers.	The company was acquired by Sonatype, via its financial sponsor Vista Equity Partners, through an LBO on March 16, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The deal will enable the company to expand breadth and depth of its Nexus platform.
NetCE	Provider of education platform intended for medical and healthcare professionals. The company provides online course material, immediate feedback, study points and evidence-based practice recommendations and instant certificate of completion, enabling healthcare professionals to raise their levels of expertise while fulfilling their continuing education requirements.	The company was acquired by Therapeutic Research Center, via its financial sponsor Levine Leichtman Capital Partners, through an LBO on March 8, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Payfactors	Developer of a compensation data platform intended to access granular and real time information. The company's platform gets rid of the manual processes and integrates all data sources and surveys into one simple seamless spot, enabling clients to access their platform to store and access their third party compensation surveys making automated survey participation easy.	The company was acquired by PayScale, via its financial sponsor Francisco Partners, through an LBO on March 1, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
PeakView Communications	Provider of cloud adoption consulting services intended for mid to large-sized businesses. The company assists clients through the process of requirements due diligence, technology selection, contracting and pricing negotiation, implementation as well as ongoing life-cycle management, enabling them to transition from legacy contact center technology to a more robust omnichannel platform.	The company was acquired by Inflow Communications, via its financial sponsor Renovus Capital Partners, through an LBO on March 15, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.

Information Technology Deals for March 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Planar Monolithics Industries	Designer and manufacturer of hybrid monolithic products intended for applications in space, military, communications, commercial and consumer electronics systems. The company primarily specializes in offering microwave integrated circuit components, subsystems, amplifiers, detectors, frequency converters and synthesizers.	The company was acquired by Evans Capacitor Company, via its financial sponsor Arcline Investment Management, through an LBO on March 8, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
PreEmptive	Developer of application protection and security tools intended for desktop, mobile, cloud and IoT devices. The company's solution manages application risks and complies with regulations, enabling organizations to make their applications resistant and resilient to hacking and tampering like protecting intellectual property, sensitive data and revenue.	The company was acquired by Idera, via its financial sponsors Partners Group, HGGC, TA Associates Management and W Capital Partners, through an LBO on March 2, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
PrimeGov	Developer of legislative management and virtual meeting software intended to simplify government administration processes. The company's platform offers committee management, agenda automation, virtual meeting management, citizen engagement, document management and video streaming, enabling governments to optimize and digitize their agenda, meeting and committee management processes with a single, end-to-end, cloud-based solution.	The company was acquired by Rock Solid Technologies, via its financial sponsor Strattam Capital, through an LBO on March 25, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Saggezza	Provider of IT and consulting services intended to help companies compete in the digital age and transform. The company offers a suite of managed services across core practice areas including salesforce, data analytics, digital experience, engineering and automation that assist the technology ecosystem as well as agile implementation services that are efficiently delivered through incremental cycles, enabling its client to accelerate growth, uncover new opportunities, manage and improve return on investment.	The company was acquired by Infostretch, via its financial sponsors Everstone Capital and Goldman Sachs Merchant Banking Division, through an LBO on March 04, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The acquisition will accelerate Infostretch's penetration in existing key verticals such as financial services, insurance and healthcare while also expanding its presence in both the U.S. (Midwest) and U.K. markets.

Information Technology Deals for March 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
SchoolAdmin	Developer of an school management software designed to help schools seamlessly manage admissions, enrollment and tuition billing processes. The company's enrollment management platform includes a robust suite of integrated admissions, enrollment, retention, and financial administration tools custom-built for private and independent schools enabling schools to thrive by building stronger relationships and more successful enrollment management strategies.	The company was acquired by Finalsite, via its financial sponsors HarbourVest Partners and Bridge Growth Partners, through an LBO on March 10, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
SoleraTec	Developer of video and digital asset management software based in Escondido, California. The company specializes in digital evidence management, body cameras for law enforcement, surveillance and media and entertainment, providing corporate customers with effective support, archive and storage of digital data.	The company was acquired by StorMagic, via its financial sponsors Committed Capital Financial Services and Meridian Growth Capital, through an LBO on March 30, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The acquisition expands StorMagic's offerings with ARQvault video surveillance and digital evidence management solutions, which use multiple tiers of storage, including the cloud.
Starfish Retention Solutions	Provider of student success platform for colleges and universities. The company offers a collection of software services that harness the power of the campus community that helps colleges and universities scale their student success efforts so more students can achieve their academic and life goals.	The company, a subsidiary of Hobsons, was acquired by EAB, via its financial sponsor Vista Equity Partners, through an LBO on March 3, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The acquisition expands EAB's postsecondary student success capabilities and expertise, as well as network of college and university partners.
StorageCraft Technology	Provider of data protection, data management and business continuity systems. The company offers a broad range of backup and recovery services that include class backup, disaster recovery, system migration and data protection technologies for servers, desktops and laptops thereby delivering software products that reduce downtime, improve management and stability of systems and data and lower the total cost of ownership.	The company was acquired by Arcserve, via its financial sponsor Marlin Equity Partners, through an LBO on March 17, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.

Information Technology Deals for March 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
The Game Agency	Developer of games intended to make education, corporate training and consumer marketing fun and effective. The company's games are for new-employee onboarding, sales and product training, leadership development, safety, security, compliance, systems and processes, customer service and many other training topics, enabling companies to engage people with social and competitive elements, and as a result, heighten attention, sustain focus, and drive action.	The company was acquired by eLearning Brothers, via its financial sponsors Trinity Private Equity Group, HCAP Partners, Eagle Marsh Holdings and RLG Capital, through an LBO on March 19, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
The Goal	Provider of technology consulting and IT teaming partnership services intended for federal clientele within the healthcare, civilian, and defense sectors. The company offers security, threat intelligence, cloud, digital transformation, IT modernization and data management services, providing clients with resources required to handle complex business-critical projects.	The company was acquired by Motion Recruitment Partners, via its financial sponsor Littlejohn & Co, through an LBO on March 4, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Tock	Developer of a restaurant-oriented platform intended to fundamentally change the way restaurants think about and run their business. The company's platform includes a reservation, guest and table management system for restaurants of all sizes across the globe and an inbuilt online ordering system for take-out and home delivery, enabling restaurants to easily manage their restaurant bookings and system and helping individuals to order and consume restaurant made food from the comfort of their homes.	The company was acquired by Squarespace, via its financial sponsors, Dragoneer Investment Group, alongside 7 other financial sponsors through an estimated $400 million LBO on March 31, 2021. The transaction values the company at $400 million.

Information Technology Deals for March 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
TopOPPS	Provider of sales pipeline management and forecast predictability services designed to automate sales forecast. The company's predictive analytics tool helps to define, align and enhance the sales process by using advanced analytics and smart mobile updates, enabling sales representatives to bring clarity and efficiency to the sales pipeline and process, resulting in more accurate forecasts.	The company was acquired by Xactly, via its financial sponsor Vista Equity Partners, through an LBO on March 10, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Total Cable Solutions	Manufacturer of data center and telecom cables based in Springboro, Ohio. The company offers products including IEC power cords, CAT6, pigtailed, indoor and outdoor fiber cables, FTTX enclosures, providing customized products according to its client's requirements.	The company was acquired by Lynn Electronics, via its financial sponsor NewSpring Capital, through an LBO on March 15, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Tradervue	Developer of a web-based trade journaling software designed to analyze investment performance. The company's platform enables individual traders and trading firms to understand and analyze their trading styles to explore lucrative options and improve their performance.	The company was acquired by SureSwift Capital through an LBO on March 30, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
transformAI	Provider of automation solutions combining robotic process automation and artificial intelligence to deliver end-to-end process automation at enterprise scale. The company's proprietary technology and services deliver real benefit with expertise in Intelligent document processing, helping simplify complex business processes across all industries.	The company was acquired by BP3 Global, via its financial sponsors Petra Capital Partners and PlumTree Partners, through an LBO on March 25, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Treeno Software	Developer of web-based solutions offering document management and workflow automation to the small to the middle market. The company provides application integration, workflow automation and electronic forms capture, enabling clients to increase the efficiency of repetitive business processes by fifty percent.	The company was acquired by DocuPhase, via its financial sponsor Anglepoint Capital, through an LBO on March 8, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.

Information Technology Deals for March 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
True North Networks	Provider of IT support for businesses based in Swanzey, New Hampshire. The company offers managed service, private cloud hosting as well as a cybersecurity program, providing customers with end to end solutions for their technology requirements ranging from servers and network infrastructure to computers, workstations and mobile devices.	The company was acquired by Bluff Point Associates through an LBO on March 12, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
VC3	Provider of managed information technology hosting and support services intended for municipal government and mid-market businesses. The company offers a full suite of cloud and managed IT solutions including private cloud hosting of industry specific applications, hosted desktops, hosted VoIP, fully managed networks, and related services further developing website and web application solutions and software in order to enhance the automation and productivity of clients' business processes.	The company received an undisclosed amount of development capital from Nautic Partners on March 12, 2021. As a result of the transaction, the company was recapitalized. The transaction was supported by debt financing in the form of a loan from Deerpath Capital Management.
VeriScan	Developer of biometric identity verification technology intended for airports. The company's platform adapts to existing airport infrastructure as well as airline boarding process to perform biometric verification against customs and border protection system by detecting, capturing and transmitting the traveler's image during the boarding process, providing passengers with frictionless boarding while also ensuring the privacy and security of their personal information.	The company, a subsidiary of Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority, was acquired by Linkware, via its financial sponsor, AE Industrial Partners, through an LBO on March 19, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
WAAM (North Carolina)	Developer of a mobile application designed to provide health and fitness related information. The company's platform lists videos of training sessions of various physical activities such as ballet, football, strength training and CrossFit, enabling users to get inspired and follow healthy workout routines.	The company was acquired by The St. James Group, via its financial sponsors Cain International and Eldridge (Greenwich), through an LBO on March 29, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.

Information Technology Deals for March 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Washify	Provider of a car wash point of sale software designed to revolutionize car washing. The company's software helps users to track wash statistics from their mobile phone through an application, while the data is stored in the cloud, enabling car owners to save time and keep a track of their wash.	The company was acquired by DRB Systems, via its financial sponsor New Mountain Capital, through an LBO on March 24, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Wintellect	Provider of software development and training services intended to help businesses in building enterprise software systems. The company offers specialized services catering to project management, application architecture and design, software implementation, debugging services and demo and content creation to businesses.	The company was acquired by Atmosera, via its financial sponsors Seaport Capital and The Goldman Sachs Group, through an LBO on March 9, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Wisr	Developer of a digital networking platform designed for students and alumni to create and curate their personal board of advisors. The company's platform includes a cross-functional team of career services, alumni relations and advancement professionals, enabling students to guide regarding their career path through automated matching, scheduling and follow up communications.	The company was acquired by EAB, via its financial sponsor Vista Equity Partners, through an LBO on March 9, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Zenefits	Developer of cloud-based human resources platform designed to integrate all human resources needs for small businesses. The company's application manages benefits, employee onboarding and off-boarding, tracking, selection and management of benefits and insurance plans, enabling small businesses to simplify and integrate all of their human resources needs and aspects into one dashboard.	The company was acquired by Francisco Partners through an LBO on March 18, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The investment would allow Zenefits to capitalize on the $30 billion market for human-resources software among small- and medium-sized businesses.

Information Technology Deals for March 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Zia Systems	Developer of a wireless tracking sensor technology designed to monitor and control assets. The company's technology specializes in integrating patented fiber optic sensor systems in assets which provide real-time data about their location and operating status via their application software, enabling clients to monitor their assets from an offsite computer.	The company was acquired by Vortex Companies, via its financial sponsor Platform Partners, through an LBO on March 8, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.