

Information Technology Deals for June 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
A Cloud Guru	Operator of a cloud computing training platform intended to make cloud certification training available to as many people as possible. The company's platform offers cloud computing training courses, enabling students to level up their cloud skills, prepare for certification exams and progress through learning paths to become experts in digital and cloud transformation.	The company was acquired by Pluralsight, via its financial sponsor Vista Equity Partners, through a $2 billion LBO on June 2, 2021.
Adashi Systems	Developer of public safety software solutions intended to help maintain a coordinated response prior to, during and after an incident. The company's software platform helps emergency management personnel with every step of the incident management process by working towards an end-to-end solution, enabling emergency services organizations to staff, respond to and manage critical incidents safely and efficiently.	The company was acquired by Versaterm, via its financial sponsor Banneker Partners, through an LBO on June 14, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. This deal enables strategic acquisitions designed to expand the Versaterm's public safety suite functionality for police, fire and EMS customers.
Affinaquest	Developer of cloud-based relationship management software for education and healthcare institutions. The company offers a series of SaaS-based core business management, analytics and data enriching software, providing planning and discovery, project management, prototyping, reporting as well as integration and training services to its clients.	The company was acquired by SSB Consulting Group, via its financial sponsor Strattam Capital, through an LBO on June 7, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
AlphaWave (Texas)	Developer of a cybersecurity platform intended to offer attack surface management to organizations. The company's cloud-based platform helps clients visualize and manage attack surfaces as well as gather insights into vulnerabilities and misconfigurations, enabling them to reduce opportunities for infiltration.	The company was acquired by LookingGlass Cyber Solutions, via its financial sponsors Goldman Sachs Growth Equity, NewSpring Capital, Novirian Capital, The Strand Partners, Grayhawk Capital, Triangle Peak Partners and other sponsors, through an LBO on June 22, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Aptera (Software)	Provider of a web designing and inbound marketing platform intended for enterprise-level companies. The company offers software that helps businesses use custom software development and web designing services in various industries.	The company was acquired by Core Business Technology Solutions, via its financial sponsors Tailwind Capital and GarMark Partners, through an LBO on June 23, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.

Information Technology Deals for June 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
AssureSign	Developer of digital transaction management (DTM) and automation software designed to help businesses create and execute a secure and seamless signature experience. The company's electronic signature software provides forensically identifiable evidence of contractual acceptance with digitized electronic signatures by one or more signatories located anywhere in the world, enabling insurance and financial services clients to quickly and securely send documents for signature to any device, at any time via customized experiences.	The company was acquired by Nintex Global, via its financial sponsors Thoma Bravo, Macquarie Asset Management, TA Associates Management, Sixth Street Specialty Lending, Updata Partners and Savano Capital Partners, through an LBO on June 2, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
AutoQuotes	Developer of a marketing platform intended for the foodservice equipment and supplies industry. The company offers a configure, price, quote software that includes an online catalog, quotation, content creation, data analytics and design applications, enabling manufacturers, dealers, consultants and designers to get accurate and customized quotes for their products.	The company was acquired by TA Associates Management through an LBO on June 29, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Ayehu	Developer of a security process automation software designed to offer greater control over IT infrastructure through automation. The company's automation software helps to identify and resolve critical incidents, simplify complex workflows and server patching, providing IT and security professionals access to rapid containment, eradication, and recovery from cybersecurity breaches.	The company was acquired by Resolve Systems, via its financial sponsor Insight Partners, through an LBO on June 10, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.

Information Technology Deals for June 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Bang the Table	Developer of software intended for community engagement and public participation. The company's software centralizes engagement, captures, analyses and provides a dashboard report on city-wide engagement and helps deliver rich conversation across various channels and formats, thereby helping the participants across government, healthcare, planning, education and other industries and communities to learn, engage and manage every level of community engagement and make informed decisions.	The company was acquired by Granicus, via its financial sponsors Harvest Partners, Vista Equity Partners and K1 Investment Management, through an LBO on June 17, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Beanstalk Payment Technologies	Developer of a cloud-based fintech application programming interface intended for government, medical, fitness and e-commerce sectors. The company offers a simple and secure API that will provide payment processors with a single point of integration to all the major debit networks and its proprietary routing intelligence optimizes the routing of eligible debit card transactions, thereby providing clients with the flexibility to manage routing decisions and cost transparency via enhanced messaging and reporting that details the savings achieved by each debit transaction's optimized route.	The company was acquired by Payroc, via its financial sponsors Audax Group and Parthenon Capital Partners, through an LBO on June 25, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. This acquisition will merge Payroc's full-stack processing platform with the company's debit routing intelligence solution which will help merchants, payfacs and independent software vendors reduce the costs associated with debit card transactions, while also increasing the rate at which these transactions successfully process.
Bearing Cybersecurity	Developer of a cloud-based cybersecurity platform designed for small and mid-level businesses to identify security gaps. The company's platform and data-driven tools analyze and visualize an organization's cyber exposure to make it easy to identify and prioritize the most significant gaps while developing a plan for cyber resilience, enabling clients to understand and mitigate risks and continue growing.	The company was acquired by Pondurance, via its financial sponsor Newlight Partners, through an LBO on June 22, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.

Information Technology Deals for June 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Behaviorsoft	Developer of turnkey platform focused on compliance tracking and electronic health record systems intended to serve small applied behavior analysis practices. The company specializes in offering end-to-end, practice management and clinical management resources and provides dashboards to reduce overhead for managing and tracking compliance, data collection and billing, allowing clients to keep track of missing or expiring certifications for contractors.	The company was acquired by CentralReach, via its financial sponsor Insight Partners, through an LBO on June 3, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
BP Controls	Developer of industrial automation systems designed to provide the functionality and flexibility required for warehouses and distribution centers. The company designs, engineers and integrates material handling control systems and offers a variety of solutions including warehouse control and execution, in-motion labeling and weighing, pick or put to light and industrial control, enabling clients to reduce manpower demand, increase performance, return on investment (ROI) and productivity while meeting their industrial automation, warehouse controls and conveyor system needs.	The company was acquired by Hy-Tek Material Handling, via its financial sponsor Dunes Point Capital, through an LBO on June 15, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The acquisition enables Hy-Tek Material Handling to broaden its offerings in the material handling market.
Cambridge Network Solutions	Provider of network design, engineering and construction services across Boston, Cambridge and surrounding areas. The company offers area connectivity services such as dark fiber leasing and data center wholesale, ensuring efficient fiber connectivity for its clients.	The company was acquired by Lightpath, via its financial sponsors Morgan Stanley Infrastructure Partners and Altice USA, through an LBO on June 16, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.

Information Technology Deals for June 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Cloud9 Technologies	Developer of a cloud-based trader collaboration and analytics platform intended to reinvent the way traders communicate. The company's platform eliminates the complexity of dealing with traditional telephone services while offering end-to-end security and voice-activated trading, enabling traders to interact with parties seamlessly, increase collaboration and reduce cost.	The company was acquired by Symphony Communication Services, via its financial sponsors UBS Group, Société Générale, Nomura Securities, Natixis, Morgan Stanley, Wells Fargo, Deutsche Bank, Credit Suisse, GlobalLink1 Capital, Goldman Sachs Growth Equity, J.P. Morgan, Jefferies Financial Group, Maverick Ventures, Lakestar, Merus Capital, Arete Capital Asia, Bank of America, Bank of America Merrill Lynch, BlackRock Private Equity Partners, BNP Paribas, BNY Mellon, Bpifrance, Citadel (Hedge Fund), Citigroup and CLSA Capital Partners, through an LBO on June 24, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
CloudwirX	Provider of vendor-neutral information technology infrastructure services aimed to be a strategic partner and trusted advocate for businesses that are evaluating and selecting IT infrastructure. The company specializes in offering a range of services including data center management, data colocation, cloud computing, high-availability networks and managed IT services, helping enterprises select, procure and operate secure and high-performing digital platforms and facilities worldwide.	The company was acquired by UpStack, via its financial sponsor Berkshire Partners, through an LBO on June 10, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
ColoHouse	Provider of colocation, data center services, network, cloud and customized services primarily focused on North America, Europe, South America, and Asia. The company offers a variety of solutions which includes internet connectivity, peering exchanges, data center interconnection and other managed services, enabling customers to obtain the flexibility to customize their IT infrastructure needs and allocate resources toward their core business.	The company was acquired by Valterra Partners and Fifteenfortyseven Critical Systems Realty, via its financial sponsor Atalaya Capital Management, through an LBO on June 8, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The acquisition enables the company to increase its footprints at 14 locations in eight different countries across the globe. The transaction also includes the acquisition of the former Green House Data colocation facility in Orangeburg, New York.
Comtel Communications	Operator of a technology consulting agency based in Richmond, Virginia. The company offers cloud services, security, voice, data center and mobility services to ensure that business goals are met with current and dynamic telecom and technology services.	The company was acquired by Telarus, via its financial sponsor Columbia Capital, through an LBO on June 16, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.

Information Technology Deals for June 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Convene Networks	Developer of integrated core network software intended for wireless and telecommunications markets. The company offers mobile packet core networks, tunneling protocol and solutions especially built for network function virtualization (NFV), enabling clients to scale critical mobile network nodes to meet the demands of their ever-changing networks.	The company was acquired by Mobileum, via its financial sponsor Audax Group, through an LBO on June 23, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The acquisition expands Mobileum's core network technology footprint, expands its portfolio of 5G core solutions and offers commercial 5G inboxes for small carriers and private networks.
Cor365 Information Solutions	Provider of secure document and data management solutions across North Carolina. The company offers document scanning, record storage and shredding services, providing clients secure data protection and document services at lower costs.	The company was acquired by Vital Records Control, via its financial sponsor Windjammer Capital Investors, through an LBO on an undisclosed date for an undisclosed sum.
CyFIR	Provider of a digital forensics platform intended to offer enterprise-level network forensics and incident response tools required to monitor and protect data infrastructure. The company's platform helps in offering live, immediate forensic analysis and incident response on both files on disk and processes running in memory, enabling businesses to receive protection against unknown malware through continuous monitoring of the processes.	The company was acquired by eSentire, via its financial sponsors Warburg Pincus, Edison Partners and Georgian, through an LBO on June 17, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Denim Group	Developer of security software intended for customers on matters of application risk and security. The company's security software provides riskiest areas identification, right assessment approach determination, crucial vulnerabilities remediation and road map creation, enabling their clients to build more secure software faster.	The company was acquired by Coalfire Systems, via its financial sponsor Apax Partners, through an LBO on June 1, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. With the acquisition, Coalfire will transform modern application development in a way that optimizes scarce DevSecOps resources and accelerates time to market.

Information Technology Deals for June 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Developing Solutions	Provider of performance and testing services to telecom and datacom industries. The company offers a variety of products and solutions which include traffic simulation, functional compliance validation, VoLTE testing capabilities and 5G, EAP, LTE and SMS testing services, enabling wireless service providers and network equipment manufacturers to test the compliance and reliability of their network devices and architectures.	The company was acquired by Mobileum, via its financial sponsors Audax Group and Stellus Capital Management, through an LBO on June 22, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The acquisition enables the company and Mobileum to integrate their products and broaden their market in 5G emulation capabilities.
Digarc	Developer of e-catalog and curriculum management software designed for higher education institutions in the United States. The company's software helps in curriculum and catalog management, student and class scheduling and student pathfinder which helps in streamlining processes, enabling students and institutions to increase efficiency and success.	The company was acquired by Modern Campus, via its financial sponsors Saratoga Investment, Serent Capital and The Riverside Company, through an LBO on June 10, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The acquisition enables Modern Campus to accelerate its commitment to customer success by revolutionizing learner engagement with massively personalized digital experiences.
Ensono	Provider of hybrid IT managed services intended to operate and optimize large enterprises' mission-critical IT infrastructure.. The company offers an end-to-end service portfolio from mainframe to private cloud and public cloud through a consultative approach which helps to deliver solutions to clients across any type of infrastructure, enabling clients to focus on their core business while ensuring that mission-critical applications run smoothly and efficiently.	The company was acquired by Kohlberg Kravis Roberts through an LBO on June 5, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The transaction values the company at an estimated $1.7 billion.
FastComp	Operator of an online insurance platform for independent retail agents. The company's platform provides an alternative to the cumbersome policies and restrictions of major Workers' Compensation by utilizing advanced APIs and proprietary predictive modeling, enabling clients to secure more business in the competitive market	The company was acquired by Scottish American, via its financial sponsors M2O, Samson Investment Partners and The Cambria Group, through an LBO on June 1, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.

Information Technology Deals for June 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Hayes Software Systems	Developer of school-focused inventory management software designed to empower school administrators. The company's SaaS-based school asset management and textbook inventory management feature offer RFID support, inventory automation and centralized control as well as consulting services for change management, identify process and procedure improvements, enabling clients in the K-12 education market to benefit from increased efficiency, time and cost savings, powerful reporting and high return on investment.	The company was acquired by Frontline Education, via its financial sponsors Thoma Bravo and Ares Capital, through an LBO on June 17, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Ibq Systems	Provider of insurance technology services to agencies. The company offers commercial and personal comparative rater services to its clients.	The company was acquired by Zywave, via its financial sponsors Clearlake Capital Group and Aurora Capital Group, through an LBO on June 30, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Infogix	Provider of data analytics and integrity software services. The company's software services offer critical data analytics, big data management, revenue optimization, fraud prevention, operational efficiencies, governance and risk, compliance services and applies advanced analytics to improve its customer experience and drive corporate profitability and streamline operational efficiency thus improving data quality, enabling effective transaction monitoring as well as providing balancing and reconciliation, identifying fraud and operationalizes predictive models.	The company was acquired by Precisely (New York), via its financial sponsors Clearlake Capital Group, TA Associates Management and Centerbridge Partners, through an LBO in June 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Insent	Developer of an AI marketing platform designed to identify and speak with the buyers. The company's platform is a human-first chat platform that filters out qualified buyers, alerts when target accounts arrive and turn unknown visitors into known prospects, enabling sales representatives to chat with engaged visitors and buyers on site.	The company was acquired by ZoomInfo Technologies, via its financial sponsors 22C Capital, TA Associates Management and The Carlyle Group, through an LBO on June 8, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.

Information Technology Deals for June 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Intelligent Fiber Network	Provider of fiber-based connectivity services intended to serve independent telephone company members and owners. The company offers fiber transport, internet access, colocation, cloud connect and other services, enabling clients to get innovative, intelligent and tailored technology services to solve their telecommunication issues.	The company was acquired by Zayo Group, via its financial sponsors EQT, Digital Colony, Fisher Lynch Capital, Ardian and BlackRock, through an LBO on June 1, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Investor Deal Room	Developer of a cloud-based back-office and investor management software intended to streamline the back-office processes with a professional investor portal. The company's software helps private equity and commercial real estate sponsors automate investor subscriptions and improve reporting, communication and transparency with investors as well as raise capital more efficiently.	The company was acquired by ResMan (Property Management Software), via its financial sponsor Mainsail Partners, through an LBO on June 15, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The acquisition will help the acquirer to continue to focus on providing the technology solutions that real estate management companies need to grow and operate their businesses more efficiently.
Joingo	Developer of mobile engagement and loyalty platform intended for the casino gaming industry. The company's application offers personalized and interactive mobile campaigns that drive increased reach, loyalty and revenue, allowing casino brands to manage an effective mobile engagement strategy.	The company was acquired by Sightline Payments, via its financial sponsors Searchlight Capital Partners, Shift4 Ventures, Vectr Ventures, Kortschak Investments, Genting Berhad, Cannae Holdings and Point Break Capital, through an LBO on June 9, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The acquisition positions Sightline to provide a more robust digital payment experience in casinos.
Marginal Unit	Developer of grid congestion modeling and analytics software dedicated to help power traders and asset managers make better and accurate power market analysis decisions. The company specializes in congestion analysis, power flow and identifying pricing opportunities, enabling clients to make better investment decisions in the power marketplace.	The company was acquired by Enverus, via its financial sponsors Genstar Capital, Insight Partners and Accel-KKR, through an LBO on June 29, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.

Information Technology Deals for June 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Maury Microwave	Manufacturer of radiofrequency measurement and interconnect systems intended to strengthen wireless communication technologies and networks. The company's products include radiofrequency through terahertz, calibration, measurement, modeling and interconnect technologies, cable assemblies and adapters, enabling telecommunications, semiconductor, aerospace, defense, instrumentation, and research industries to deliver efficient and reliable products and ensure faster time-to-market with reduced cost-of-testing.	The company was acquired by Artemis Capital Partners through an LBO on June 24, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Mobile Tech RX	Developer of an auto repair application designed to transform the auto reconditioning industry. The company's application helps to manage accounting, marketing, payment processing, pricing, client workflows and scheduling, enabling users to monitor marketing, sales, and performance in real-time.	The company was acquired by asTech, via its financial sponsors Kinderhook Industries and 3M Ventures, through an LBO on June 15, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. In support of this transaction, Ares Capital and Capital One Financial provided debt to the company.
MobileCause	Developer of fundraising and donor engagement software designed to help non-profits create meaningful connections with their donors. The company's software offers a range of services including online giving and text-to-donate, event fundraising, peer-to-peer campaigns, engagement, mobile messaging as well as reporting and analytics, enabling clients to acquire new donors, retain existing donors and inspire recurring donations.	The company was acquired by Community Brands, via its financial sponsors Insight Partners and Harvest Partners, through an LBO on June 16, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
NetworkTechnologies	Provider of IT services and support to the small and medium-sized business community. The company offers cybersecurity, strategy and compliance services, enabling its clients to take control of their IT spend and achieve greater success.	The company was acquired by Enterprise Computing Services (Louisiana), via its financial sponsors ParkSouth Ventures and Kian Capital, through an LBO on June 8, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.

Information Technology Deals for June 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
New Net Technologies	Developer of an enterprise security software designed to intelligently monitor changes to detect any suspicious and potentially harmful activity. The company's software damages the potential of ransomware, zero-day malware and data theft, enabling businesses to keep their documents and data secured.	The company was acquired by Netwrix, via its financial sponsor TA Associates Management and Udata Partners, through an LBO on June 16, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
NuAge Experts	Provider of salesforce cloud services intended for financial, growing, healthcare and manufacturing industries. The company offers managed, data, campaign management, marketing cloud, field service and automated marketing, enabling clients to focus on transparency, professionalism and value.	The company was acquired by ConvergeOne, via its financial sponsor CVC Capital Partners, through an LBO on June 22, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
On.Care	Developer of e-procurement software for nursing and assisted living facilities. The company's platform offers assistance throughout the processes of creation of order to reconciliation with accounts payable department, helping skilled nursing facilities reach their budget, productivity and efficiency peak.	The company was acquired by Procurement Partners, via its financial sponsor Serent Capital, through an LBO on June 8, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
PacTech Partners	Provider of vendor-neutral network and communications technology sourcing services for large enterprises. The company specializes in offering strategic sourcing, network connectivity, unified communications, security and other critical services, providing effective and vital infrastructure, applications engineering and vendor selections to clients.	The company was acquired by UpStack, via its financial sponsor Berkshire Partners, through an LBO on June 24, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Picmonic	Developer of a visual learning platform designed to improve memory and increase skills. The company's platform offers a storytelling application that uses picture mnemonics for high stakes knowledge, enabling academic students to remember more and boost their test scores and maximize their potential.	The company was acquired by TrueLearn, via its financial sponsor LLR Partners, through an LBO on June 10, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The acquisition will allow TrueLearn to expand its digital learning footprint.

Information Technology Deals for June 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Point 5 Network Solutions	Provider of network as services and consulting service based in North Chelmsford, Massachusetts. The company provides global connectivity, network management, data and voice optimization and network optimization, enabling clients to reduce costs, improve performance and ease management.	The company was acquired by Lightpath, via its financial sponsor Morgan Stanley Infrastructure Partners, through an LBO on June 16, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Presence	Developer of student engagement and learning software designed to assist in the management and assessment process. The company's software helps universities to improve retention rates by tracking and learning about their students' involvement patterns and behaviors and makes it easy to visualize and assess efforts through data, streamlines workflows for departments and student organizations, enabling universities to map and create learning outcomes to opportunities for student success.	The company was acquired by Modern Campus, via its financial sponsors Saratoga Investment and The Riverside Company, through an LBO on June 24, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The acquisition extends Modern Campus's learning partners to more than 1,400 colleges and universities across North America and enables each to serve their students with a massively personalized experience throughout the "learner to earner" journey.
PSIGEN Software	Developer of document capture, workflow and management software designed to improve processes around the capture and management of paper, digital documents and other mission-critical information. The company's software offers flexibility and scalability by automating data entry, making information instantly accessible through integration with scanning devices, fax servers, multi-function printers or network folders while delivering real-time and actionable data to the executive team or the entire organization, enabling clients to reduce costs, improve compliance and efficiency.	The company was acquired by Kofax, via its financial sponsor Thoma Bravo, through an LBO on June 2, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The acquisition extends Kofax's position in the capture marketplace while enhancing its intelligent automation platform capabilities.
Quartesian	Provider of clinical data management services based in Princeton, New Jersey. The company offers statistical programming and biostatistics, medical writing and publishing, pharmacovigilance and data visualization services in order to enable companies to take control of their data and clinical trial.	The company was acquired by Veranex, via its financial sponsor Summit Partners, through an LBO on June 16, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.

Information Technology Deals for June 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Real Green Systems	Developer of field service management and marketing software intended for lawn care, pest control, landscaping and other service industries. The company's software offers appointment scheduling, property measuring, quote generation, automated marketing assistant, routing assistant, daily routine planning, fleet tracking and payment features, thereby enabling clients to organize their daily tasks to efficiently grow and scale their businesses.	The company was acquired by WorkWave, via its financial sponsors Serent Capital, TA Associates Management and EQT, through an LBO on June 22, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Red River Technology	Provider of technology transformation services for commercial, federal and SLED markets. The company through its capabilities and technology offers services including consulting, lifecycle, remote workforce assist, cybersecurity and managed services, enabling its clients to solve critical data centre, security, analytics, cloud and mobility challenges.	The company was acquired by Cerberus Capital Management through an LBO on June 1, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Revcontent	Developer of content marketing and native advertising platform intended to allow publishers and advertisers to monetize their audience. The company's platform offers a suite of widgets and APIs that enables publishers and advertisers to reach and exceed their revenue, engagement and growth goals by providing users with a way to discover news, innovative thoughts and useful products.	The company was acquired by Star Mountain Capital and Capital Dynamics through an LBO on June 2, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The transaction was supported by debt financing in the form of a loan from Star Mountain Capital and BHI USA. This acquisition will allow the company to offer competitive revenue for publishers and increased scale for advertisers.
Rodio	Developer of a communication platform designed to help the dispersed teams that solve leadership issues. The company's platform drives engagement and improves the end customer experience, enabling organizations to encourage team collaboration.	The company was acquired by Form.com, via its financial sponsor Diversis Capital, through an LBO on June 15, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. This acquisition fuels Form.com's rapid innovation to be the world's first Digital Assistant for the frontline, with mobile technology that's intuitive for the distributed teams driving operational compliance and market execution in the field for the enterprise.

Information Technology Deals for June 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Salsa Labs	Provider of a SaaS based smart supporter engagement platform designed to offer online supporter engagement and constituent relationship management. The company's platform provides donor management, digital marketing, online fundraising, online advocacy, and peer-to-peer fundraising tools, enabling nonprofit organizations to boost staff efficiency, deepen supporter relationships, launch online fundraising campaigns and accelerate fundraising growth.	The company was acquired by EveryAction, via its financial sponsors Ares Capital and Insight Partners, through an LBO on June 2, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Samya.AI	Provider of enterprise software platform intended to guide companies to recapture revenue growth potential. The company's platform uses the power of deep learning, probabilistic machine learning and reinforcement learning approaches together with deep domain expertise, enabling CPG companies to scale up their operations and generate profits.	The company was acquired by Fractal Analytics, via its financial sponsor Apax Partners, through an LBO on June 22, 2021.
Schoox	Developer of an e-learning platform intended to help businesses shift from traditional and compliance-based training to digital and interactive mode. The company's platform offers learning and talent development services across industries including restaurants, retail, hospitality, construction, real estate, manufacturing, finance and transportation, helping companies and their employees learn more, connect deeper, adapt faster and perform better.	International Accelerator and Capital Factory sold their stake in the company to Vista Equity Partners on June 29, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. The company will use the investment capital to expand its product suite, giving learning and development teams additional tools and resources.

Information Technology Deals for June 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
SDLC Partners	Provider of business and technology services intended to empower and equip organizations to accelerate performance through smarter solutions. The company's services include building and supporting an anti-fragile system that facilitates better decisions and strategies through perspective data, powerful tools and dynamic reporting, enabling clients to increase their revenue and market share, improve customer satisfaction and reduce the cost-effectively.	The company was acquired by CitiusTech, via its financial sponsor Baring Private Equity Asia, through an LBO on June 24, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
simMachines	Developer of a machine learning software designed to offer justification behind predictions. The company's software offers predictions, recommendations, group objects and searches for similar things, enabling data scientists, marketers, analysts and business leaders to achieve significant efficiency, performance and innovation gains.	The company was acquired by InRule Technology, via its financial sponsor OpenGate Capital, through an LBO on June 8, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
SJE (Minnesota)	Manufacturer of control solutions intended to improve functionality in the water, wastewater and sewage industries. The company offers a broad suite of products including float switches and septic alarm systems, wastewater automation systems, control panels, monitoring systems and pump control panels, enabling industries to meet their liquid level control needs.	The company was acquired by Audax Group through an LBO on June 18, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Skipjack Supply Chain	Developer of software as a service (SaaS) based logistics platform designed to dissolve the complexity inherent in supply chain and warehouse management applications. The company's platform provides cloud-based rating, labeling and manifest capabilities with native integration to other software applications, enabling its clients to reduce the difficulty of outbound parcel shipping.	The company was acquired by Redwood Logistics, via its financial sponsor CI Capital Partners, through an LBO on June 2, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. Redwood Logistics has acquired both the company and Proactive Global Logistics to launch Redwood Parcel.

Information Technology Deals for June 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
SmartCo Services	Developer of an inventory management system for the retail market. The company offers web-based inventory planning and management system to automotive dealerships to help them optimize inventory in their parts department by analyzing their data.	The company was acquired by Oeconnection, via its financial sponsor Genstar Capital, through an LBO on June 3, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
STX Business Solutions	Developer of analysis software intended for alcohol suppliers, distributors and retailers. The company's platform offers insights, data integrity, transparency of businesses, predictive analytics and pricing information, enabling clients to manage the performance of the business.	The company was acquired by Financial Information Technologies, via its financial sponsors Luminate Capital Partners and TA Associates Management, through an LBO on June 30, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Synapse Design	Provider of system-on-a-chip design services to semiconductor and systems companies. The company specializes in design specs and building complete products, with ASIC design services that include RTL design, design verification and physical design for digital, analog and mixed-signal semiconductors as per requirements and specs for its clients across various industries including semiconductor, automotive, consumer electronics, networking and storage systems.	The company was acquired by QuEST Global Services, via its financial sponsors Government of Singapore Investment Corporation (GIC), Bain Capital and Advent International, through an LBO on June 29, 2021 for an undisclosed sum. This addition will enhance QuEST Global Services' capability in providing comprehensive design and consulting services and software development for the semiconductor industry and the company will be able to offer end-to-end hardware-enabled software solutions to its customers across various industries, including semiconductor, automotive, consumer electronics, networking, and storage systems.
Transaction Network Services	Provider of data communications and interoperability systems to retail, banking, payment processing, telecommunications and the financial sector. The company specializes in offering a range of managed infrastructure, networking, communication services, mission-critical connectivity and gateway services via a global network, enabling its customers to exchange data and information and transact worldwide.	The company was acquired by Koch Equity Development through an LBO on June 1, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.

Information Technology Deals for June 2021

Company Name	Description	Deal Synopsis
Trucker Tools	Developer of a mobile application designed to assist truckers in load's route and receiving real-time updates on the location. The company's mobile application informs truck drivers about nearest truck shops and rest areas and also provides them real-time updates on nearby fuel shops, fuel prices, traffic patterns and route restrictions, enabling them to track the load that they are hauling for the brokers, shippers or carrier dispatchers.	The company was acquired by Alpine SG, via its financial sponsor Alpine Investors through a $65 million LBO on June 6, 2021.
Trueface	Provider of a facial recognition platform intended to make immediate decisions based on identified patterns. The company's platform applies advanced computer vision technology to camera footage and images, enabling users to identify persons of interest and objects feasibly and make instant decisions at cheaper costs	The company was acquired by Linkware, via its financial sponsor AE Industrial Partners, through an LBO on June 2, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Two-Way Radio	Distributor of communications systems and devices for public safety and industrial clients. The company offers a range of products including body-worn cameras, dispatch consoles, mobile and portable radios, and accessories, thereby enabling customers to have instantaneous, secure and controllable communications. The company also offers device management, tower sites, lighting protection and vehicle upfitting services to its clients.	The company was acquired by Mobile Communications America, via its financial sponsor Sentinel Capital Partners, through an LBO on June 7, 2021 for an undisclosed sum.
Unity Fiber	Provider and developer of network and communication infrastructure based in Pennsylvania, United States. The company specializes in operating and managing cell site backhaul, small cell for wireless operators, and Ethernet, Wavelengths and Dark Fiber for telecom carriers and enterprises.	The Uniti Fiber subsidiary and certain assets of the Uniti Group were acquired by Everstream Solutions, via its financial sponsor AMP Capital Investors, through a $135 million LBO on June 1, 2021.